

A HEALTHY BREAK

A respite break is a healthy necessity that benefits both caregivers and their loved ones. Short-term respite stays can be an ideal solution when family caregivers travel or need a break. They also offer a welcome opportunity to "test the water."

Respite care, for as little as 14 days and up to an extended period of time, includes furnished accommodations, meals, opportunities for socialization, planned activities, access to Encore Memory Care amenities and services and an opportunity for a professional assessment if requested.

Call today to learn more and ask about our all-inclusive daily rate for short-term assisted living and memory care respite stays.
